

The two of you

For couples. Closer questions, a little warmer — the two of you and the quiet.

HOW IT GOES

- Light the candle. Phones away. Pick the set that fits your table.
- Take turns reading a question aloud. Answer, or pass — no one is pressed, no one is cross-examined.
- Work down the list at your own pace; the lighter questions come first.
- When someone is ready to end the evening, they call the last question — always the same one.
- Everyone answers, and you blow the candle out together.
- Tomorrow night, light it again and carry on where you left off.

THE QUESTIONS

- 01 What's the first thing you noticed about me?
- 02 What did you think was going to happen the night we met?
- 03 What's a small habit of mine you'd miss if it were gone?
- 04 What's something I do that you'd never admit you find attractive?
- 05 What's the best trip or day we've had together?
- 06 What's something you'd like us to do more of?
- 07 What did you almost not tell me when we were starting out?
- 08 When do you feel most like yourself with me?
- 09 What's something about us you appreciate but rarely say out loud?
- 10 What's a risk you'd like us to take together?
- 11 Where do you still want to go together?
- 12 What does a good life look like to you?

THE LAST QUESTION, ALWAYS

What's one small thing that made today better?

WHAT WAS SAID BY THE CANDLE STAYS BY THE CANDLE.
